The best film I have seen recently is Divergent and it is the first of three films in the series. It is set (1) the future and Tris and Four are the two (2) characters. In their society, everyone lives in certain groups based on what kind of person they are. A 'divergent' is a person who is different and who doesn't really belong to any of the groups. Some people are frightened of divergents and think they are much (3) dangerous to live in their society. Tris is a divergent and on her sixteenth birthday, she chooses to leave her group to join another one. This is where she meets Four, who is more caring (4) the other people in the group, and they soon fall in love. Four is as brave as a(n) (5) but sometimes he gets (6) my nerves; he is always trying to help Tris, but much of the advice he gives her (7) very confusing. Some people say that this film is similar (8) the Hunger Games, but I think it is (9) better. I don't know when the second film (10) come out, but I'm really looking forward to it.

She looked a bit sad and some of the other kids were making fun (5) her. I felt (6) for her, so I started to talk to her as we walked through the forest. After a while, I realised that we (7) a lot in common. For example, we were both really into rock music. She told me that she had been a bit upset earlier because she'd had an argument with her mum, but I had made her feel (8)
